What else does an applicant need to know about your congregation, the position or your city?

We are located in a suburb of Philadelphia. We have 115+ children in our Early Childhood Education Center and a multi-year waiting list. We also have 120 children in our Religious School. There is an active social action committee that has been operating for over 20 years (COASAC focuses on the broader community), newly revitalized Brotherhood and Sisterhood and a very well established Mitzvah Corps (operating for over 20 years for the benefit of Or Ami members). Our Senior Rabbi and Cantor are very involved and hands-on.

Certification

All correspondence will be by e-mail. Please note that the congregation will be responsible for the travel expenses of any candidate asked to meet on-site with the congregation's Search Committee. Further, the Joint Placement Commission serves as a clearing house to disseminate information supplied by the congregation to potential candidates, and does not endorse or rate any candidate. It is totally the responsibility of the congregation to perform and complete its due diligence in researching and validating the background, experience and any claims made by candidates under consideration by the congregation.
