This is a unique opportunity for an Executive Director to help lead a historic and vibrant congregation into its next chapter. This role is ideal for a dynamic leader eager to partner with exceptional clergy and a forward-looking community in shaping a bold future grounded in tradition and innovation. Jewish families from out-of-state are moving in-town, and we have a unique opportunity to grow our congregation with the right direction.

Certification

All correspondence will be by e-mail. Please note that the congregation will be responsible for the travel expenses of any candidate asked to meet on-site with the congregation's Search Committee. Further, the Joint Placement Commission serves as a clearing house to disseminate information supplied by the congregation to potential candidates, and does not endorse or rate any candidate. It is totally the responsibility of the congregation to perform and complete its due diligence in researching and validating the background, experience and any claims made by candidates under consideration by the congregation.
