What else does an applicant need to know about your congregation, the position or your city?

Ohavay Zion Synagogue (OZS) is a warm, inclusive Conservative Jewish community serving approximately 175 families in beautiful Lexington, Kentucky. We are proud of our rich history, vibrant spiritual life, and commitment to Jewish learning, social justice, and community engagement. As we look to the future, we are excited to hire our first Executive Director to help us grow and thrive.

Lexington offers the charm of a small city with the culture, natural beauty, and progressive spirit that may surprise you—horse country meets college town, with rolling hills, world-class bourbon, and a tight-knit, welcoming Jewish community.

*At this time, we can offer a Health Insurance contribution.

Certification

All correspondence will be by e-mail. Please note that the congregation will be responsible for the travel expenses of any candidate asked to meet on-site with the congregation's Search Committee. Further, the Joint Placement Commission serves as a clearing house to disseminate information supplied by the congregation to potential candidates, and does not endorse or rate any candidate. It is totally the responsibility of the congregation to perform and complete its due diligence in researching and validating the background, experience and any claims made by candidates under consideration by the congregation.
