What else does an applicant need to know about your congregation, the position or your city?

Beth Israel is an inclusive, warm, and vibrant mid-sized Conservative congregation that builds community through ritual observance, lifelong learning, and acts of loving kindness by balancing Jewish traditions with modern innovations.

Beth Israel is the synagogue where everyone knows your name and we are always glad you're here. We welcome all who seek to join us in friendship. We embrace a culture of appreciation of both volunteers and staff.

Our commitment to lifelong learning, inside and outside of our Synagogue building, encompasses all ages and backgrounds.

We offer a variety of inclusive ritual services, for all ages, both in and out of the Synagogue, to meet the needs of our community members wherever they are.

We are connected to the larger community through social action/tikkun olam programs that seek to promote equity and make the world a better place.

Our unique Shleimut program - composed of our clergy, social worker, nurse, and legal assistance team - meets the spiritual, emotional and practical needs of our Beth Israel community, providing support for the "wholeness" of each person.

We provide meaningful and entertaining programs and activities for youth through seniors, including speakers, movies, breakfasts, dinners, book clubs, game nights, fundraisers, and more

Certification

All correspondence will be by e-mail. Please note that the congregation will be responsible for the travel expenses of any candidate asked to meet on-site with the congregation's Search Committee. Further, the Joint Placement Commission serves as a clearing house to disseminate information supplied by the congregation to potential candidates, and does not endorse or rate any candidate. It is totally the responsibility of the congregation to perform and complete its due diligence in researching and validating the background, experience and any claims made by candidates under consideration by the congregation.
