What else does an applicant need to know about your congregation, the position or your city?

Nearly 50 years young, Congregation Kol Ami has been a warm home for nearly 300 households in Tampa, Florida, spanning every generation, from young families to longtime members. Ours is a caring, volunteer-driven community, where congregants know each other by name. We are eager to welcome our next Executive Director, someone who will help us build on decades of tradition while shaping what comes next. Tampa itself offers a vibrant, welcoming home for Jewish life at every stage, with a mild, sunny climate and a warm community to match.

Certification

All correspondence will be by e-mail. Please note that the congregation will be responsible for the travel expenses of any candidate asked to meet on-site with the congregation's Search Committee. Further, the Joint Placement Commission serves as a clearing house to disseminate information supplied by the congregation to potential candidates, and does not endorse or rate any candidate. It is totally the responsibility of the congregation to perform and complete its due diligence in researching and validating the background, experience and any claims made by candidates under consideration by the congregation.
